

Disaster

What is a Disaster?

A disaster is an event that is either man-made or natural, it is a disastrous event that can cause human deaths and can destroy natural environments and infrastructures.

Man-Made Disaster

An event that is caused by human actions. This occurs because of many reasons such as man-made errors (accidents), human negligence, or human intent.

Examples of Man-Made Disasters:

- War
- Oil Spill
- Crime
- Cyber Attack
- Terrorism

Natural Disaster

A disaster that occurs naturally. There are different category for natural disasters such as, Geophysical, Hydrological, Climatological, Meteorological, and Biological.

Examples of Natural Disasters:

- Earthquake
- Tsunami
- Tornado
- Storm
- Floods